

BIBLE READING PLAN

~ YEAR ONE ~

INTRODUCTION

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Bible reading is one of the great privileges and responsibilities of the Christian life. To have been awakened to the reality that the Bible contains the inspired, infallible, authoritative, and life-giving word of God is to have received an astounding gift of grace indeed. We might think, with such an awesome gift, that devoting time to read the Bible would come easily. But that is not always the case. There are many factors that can quench a genuine desire to meet regularly with God in his written word – distraction, busyness, season of life, fatigue, laziness, confusion, reading ability – to name a few. Many faithful Christians become discouraged about their Bible reading (or lack thereof). Some have effectively given up.

The following Bible reading plan has been put together by St Bart's Norwood and is an attempt to support those wanting to “get back on the horse,” so to speak. It aims to encourage a weekly rhythm of Bible reading and prayer that – yes, with a little bit of resolve and discipline! – we hope will be achievable for most people, most of the time. The plan tries to balance structure with flexibility, and with the goal of reading two chapters a day, five days a week (with weekends dedicated to catch-up and reflection on a Psalm) – it doesn't set the bar too high. That said, the key to developing a faithful and fruitful Bible reading practice is playing the long game, and allowing God's grace to meet us at our points of failure.

The overall scope of this plan is to read the entire Bible over three years, covering the Old Testament once and the New Testament three times. But let's just take it one year at a time, shall we! You may like to follow the plan precisely or adjust the allocated reading days to accommodate the flow of your week. The “flex” days can be used however you like: for catch up reading if necessary, for review of the past week, or just for a break. You will notice that a psalm has been allocated for each weekend (or whenever you take your flex days). One suggestion would be to use this provision to learn how to pray the psalms. You could think of each psalm as a psalm for the week. Anyway, enough introduction!

We pray this resource will be a blessing for all who take it up.

Yours in Christ,

Shane Ellery
